Joe Slavoski
Homeroom #2
Mr. Vesek

Dear,
I'm a real nice person with a great personality and I'm a real person of humor. I had the really good that I knew you'd to get to know the fun and good times in Mr. Bennie class. Remember the fun trip to Kennywood the games and our great trip to Pittsburgh. And luck in all that is, I know you'll be good over the summer. Love Ya
KMA. Take care and

Joe,
To a really friendly great cute guy who I'm glad I've gotten to know. Never forget the "great" English classes with Lenita. I wish you the best of luck in Basketball & just wait 'til you get the summer!
Love, Judy

Joe,
To a really great guy,
with a great sense of humor,
never forget Eng. in 9th year
& this year. Also Kane's Khem Klass.
Stay the way you are and you won't have to look too hard for friends.
Congratulations on your election, good luck in your studies & especially sports. Take it easy over the summer.
See you next year.
Paul

Joe,
To a really sweet & nice guy - I've known for these past four years.
Remember all the good times we've had over the years & hope we have many more. Remember all the boring Chem. classes & hope to see you in the summer & next year.
Love,
Kathy

Joe,
To a really sweet & sweet guy who I am so glad to be friends with. It's too bad you - I really missed talking to you.
we weren't in any classes this maybe we'll be in some next year.
Sorry there is really nothing to remember but... Have a terrific summer & I hope I see you. You have a great personality Joe, stay that way.

When students returned to Argent territory in early September they were confronted with a series of changes — changes that altered life at Hoban. The most important changes occurred within the administration as Sister Georgeanne, SCC, assumed the duties of academic vice principal, and Mr. Majikes took on additional responsibilities in his newly-designated position as vice principal. Faculty-wise we saw the relocation of many familiar faces and welcomed nine new teachers. A number of changes were made in the area of activities. Sister Mariella acquired the role of Director of Activities; Mr. Holmes took over supervision of the Student Council; Sister Leonita assumed charge of the National Honor Society and the Marching Band, for the first time in seven years, had a new leader, Mr. Rusnak. Other alterations were also evident. Upon entering the ground floor of Bishop Hoban the students discovered that someone had run wild during the summer months, leaving behind a trail of multi-colored classrooms and brightly painted corridors. Next came the prospect of longer school days as many students were stunned to learn that the weekly "B" schedules would be a thing of the past. The Argents also found fewer announcements being made over the public address system and the addition of a printed daily bulletin read each morning during the homeroom period. Another surprise came when all studies moved from classrooms to the auditorium. Change manifested itself in the sports program also. The Argents excelled throughout the year and spirit reached an all-time high. All in all, 1979 was a year of many changes.

As the weeks progress, Freshmen soon grow accustomed to their new surroundings and challenges.

In his new position as vice principal, Mr. Majikes consults with newly-appointed academic vice principal, Sister Georgeanne.

NEW FACES

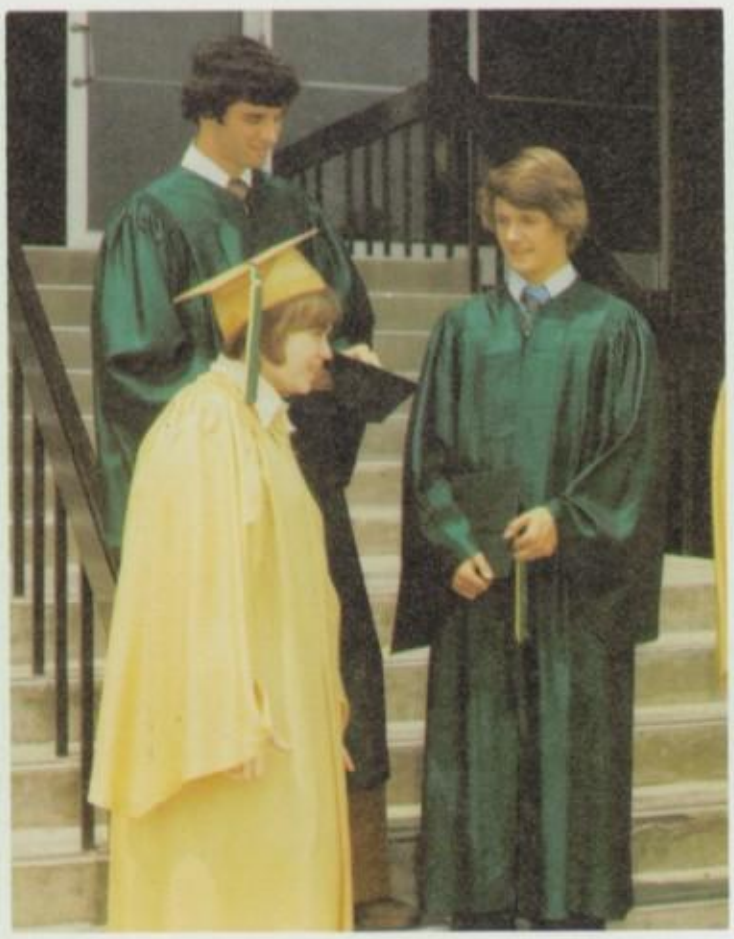
New faces among Hoban's faculty this year included: Seated: Sister Kathleen, Miss PelVecchio, Miss Schall, Mrs. Hammerbacher. Standing: Sister Mary Pio, Miss Derojas, Mr. McGrath, Sister Joan, Sister Joan Daniel.

Junior co-captain Joanie Magdalinski looks to her troops for support.

Joe, it's a real great guy I met over at good ol St Mary's a long time ago. Don't forget all our fun we had. I hope I will be back next year to graduate with you and our class, I wish you the best of luck. Especially being our Sr. Class President. Don't forget all the great times in history Don't forget me cos I won't forget you Luv Luck + Sexless in all your do. Have a great Summer Angie '80 R Y A R M

Shortly after assuming the position of Director of Activities, Sister Mariella gathered together Hoban's first Activities Staff to help her in the coordinating of the school's many activities.

NEW BEGINNINGS



As graduation draws close, Kathy Konopelski, Mark Allen and Brian Drevitch realize the changes they will soon face.

The newly-painted hallways in the basement serve as a perfect background for Hoban's newcomers.

Lavender livens up John Sosik, Diana Morren, Michelle Zbysheski and Jim Kravtiz as they discuss The Scarlet Letter.

A purple background sets the mood as Mr. Gatto's sophomores study Edgar Allan Poe.

NEW ATMOSPHERE

Varied expressions of Barb Williams and Mary Lynn Stofey are a result of the atmosphere in the freshly-painted ground floor.

The term "blue Monday" seems appropriate as a group of senior girls gather in one of Hoban's renovated basement rooms.

Seniors Rhea Heck, Toot Majikes, and Noreen Hurley kindle the flames of enthusiasm in Argent territory.

NEW LEADERSHIP

Distribution of class rings officially promotes Damien Elias, Ken Dautrich, Bob Dupre, and Bill Heck to the status of upperclassmen.

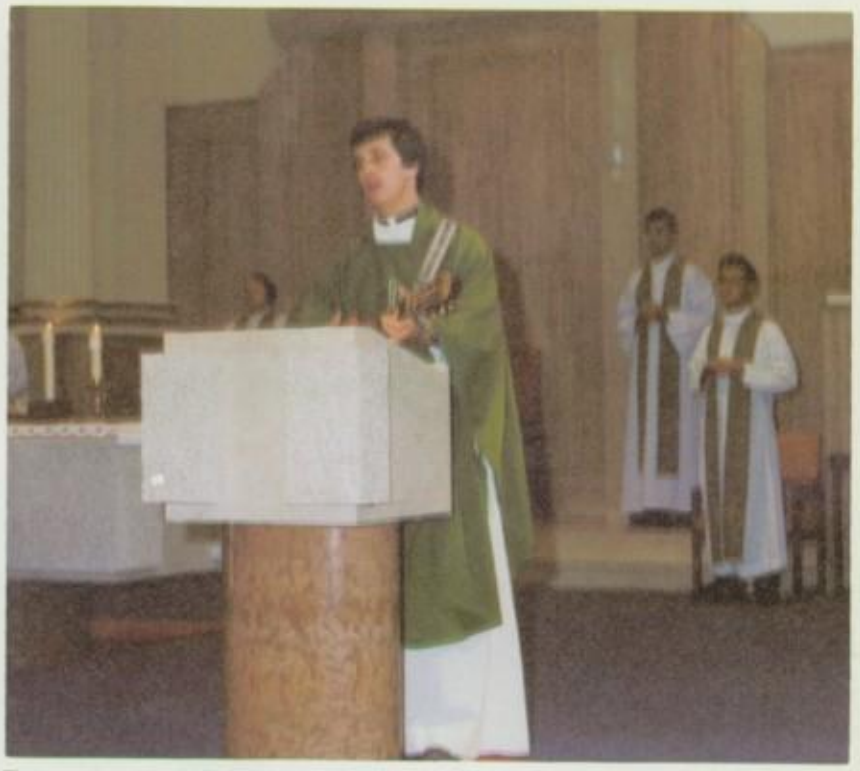
At the Homecoming bonfire, senior football players set the pace as their contagious spirit spread throughout the school.

NEW SPIRIT

The Disco craze swept the country and Bishop Hoban as seniors Ann Bekampis, Donna Mazzoni, George Blom, Kathy Farrell and Kathy Youngblood were infected by "Saturday Night Fever."

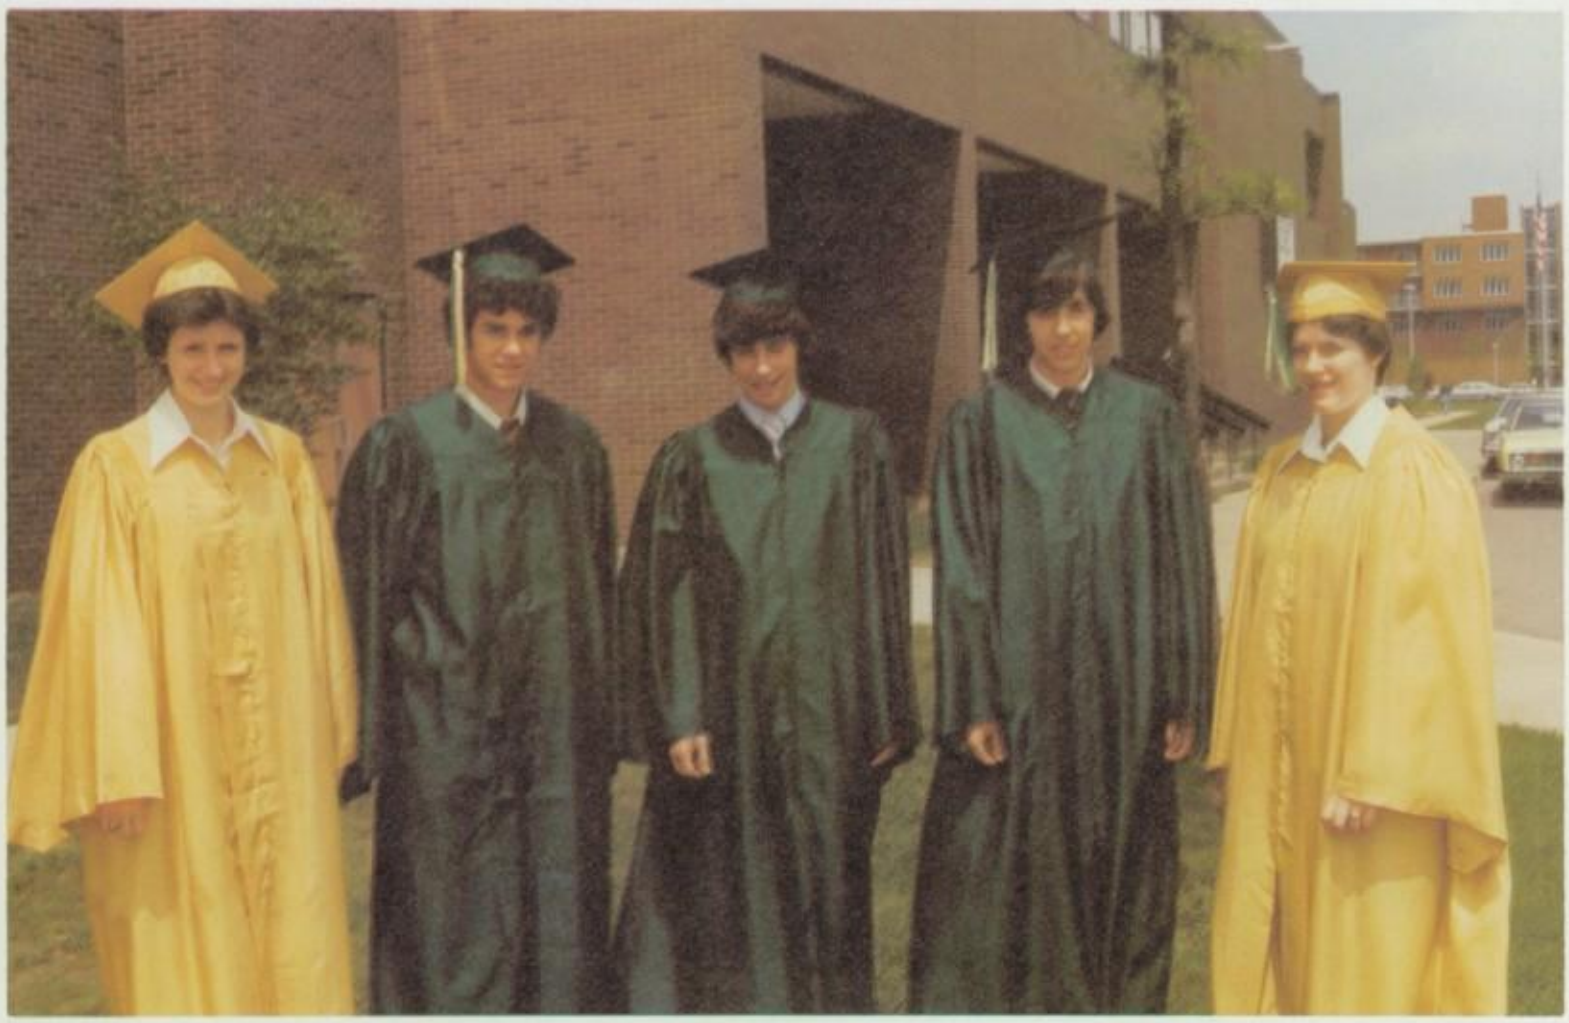
Homecoming Queen Patsy McKeon and her escort, Senior Class President Chris Cavanaugh, receive congratulations from Mrs. Lore Majikes, Homecoming coordinator.

With the conferring of the rings, the juniors assume a new role, realizing that the ring carried with it a certain responsibility.



Encouraging full participation by the student body during the annual retreat, Father Fallon leads the juniors and seniors in song.

NEW OUTLOOKS



With their school life soon to be behind them, Shari Thomas, Marc Gentilesco, John O'Hara, John Nardone and Kathy Keller prepare for graduation exercises.

EXPRESSION

Summer fades — school days loom

Summer was not a time of rest and relaxation for all of the Argent population. For those energetic, spirited members of the marching units and the cheerleaders, the months of July and August meant practice. It was hard to believe that as the torrid summer days progressed these devoted students would soon find themselves shivering in the stands as they watched the football team in action.

The annual bazaar sponsored by the Parents Club brought parents, faculty and students together for three nights of food and games, music and good times. For the students who crowded the bazaar it was a perfect opportunity to discuss their summer exploits and face the reality of another school year.

Mr. Hine rolls out one of the bazaar's top prizes.

Using her charm, Judy Skibicki makes her pitch to some prospective buyers.

Fellow cross country runners Bob Nardone and Dan Vestyck prove to be Joe Anistranski's best customers.

Katie McCarthy introduces her new friend to her mother.

While most people were thinking about the football season the strutters were hard at work preparing their routine.

Members of the junior varsity basketball squad help to set up for the annual Parents Club bazaar.

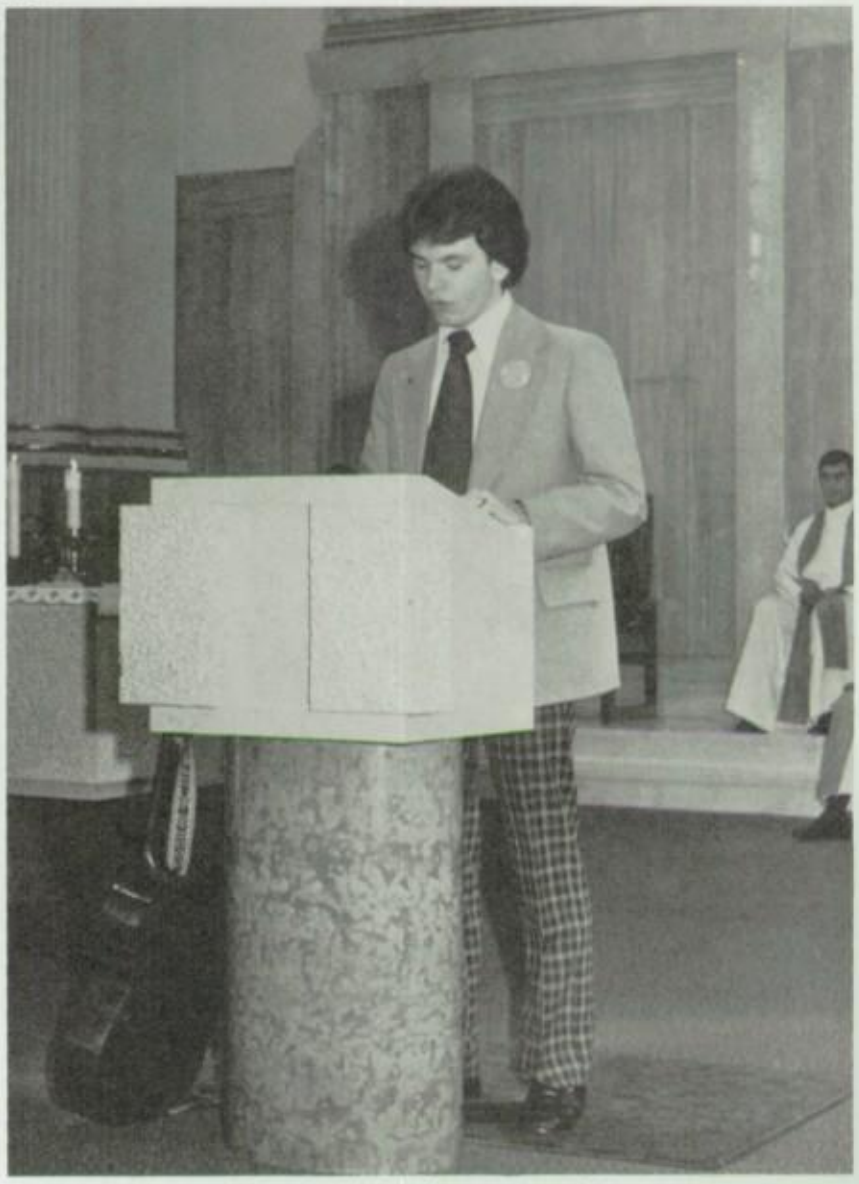
Donna Yarnot and Cheryl Roche work towards perfecting their cheers.

Looking somewhat tired from practicing in the August heat, Barbie Craig, Eileen Toole, Michele Basar, and Hope Beddall keep working to coordinate a new cheer.

As the temperature soars into the mid-August 90's John Grochowski beats the Christmas rush.

Coming together in the celebration of the Eucharist, Father Burns and members of the Religious Education Department share with the faculty and student body in praying for a successful school year.

Choir members lead the student body in song during a special liturgy at St. Mary's Church.



Kevin Gaffney calls upon the students to join him in responding to the Prayer of the Faithful.

Petitions offered for successful year

Hoban, community pay tribute to Sister Gemma

Sister Gemma extends her thanks for all the happy moments she shared with students, faculty and parents during her years at Hoban.

September 14 was the day set aside by the Bishop Hoban community to honor Sister Gemma, SCC who had served for seven years as the school's academic vice principal. Last June, Sister Gemma was transferred to Morris Catholic High School in Denville, N.J. to serve in the same capacity.

The day consisted of a Eucharistic Celebration at which Sister was honored and an assembly which was held in the auditorium. A program entitled "This is Your Life Sister Gemma," was presented by the students. Among the memories were the first days of Hoban's existence when the school was in five different buildings, the flood and the first encounter with computer scheduling. Sister thanked the students and faculty for making her seven years at Hoban so wonderful.

In the evening Sister Gemma was honored by the school, Parents Club and community at a dinner dance.

Leon Ostrowski and Gina White present Sister Gemma a gift from the students.

Sister Gemma listens as Jude Zasada explains how the "conehead" (Bob Alexander) represents the massive amount of work which goes into the computer scheduling.

Freshmen alter some of the dress code rules to get into the "Greaser Day" mood.

Sharon Kaminski heads for the auditorium to greet the incoming students with some "Rock and Roll" hits.

Some people will do anything to get attention.

The cast from "Laverne and Shirley" makes a special appearance at Hoban's 50's rally

Maureen McCarthy wonders if her 50's attire will ever replace Hoban's present-day school uniforms.

Mike Gelsleichter, Chris Cavanaugh, Bob Alexander, Tom Gil and Mike Bozentka really get into the spirit of the day.

Hobanites relive era of bobbysocks and DA's

Celebrant Father Gerald J. Burns opens the Mass with a prayer as the Spanish Choraleers directed by Mr. Richard Barno prepare to begin the first hymn.

Students gain knowledge of the customs of Spain and Mexico by participating in a Mass honoring Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Members of the Spanish Choral Group gather following the liturgy which they enhanced by singing Spanish hymns.

Spanish IV student Tom Walsh adds to the activities of the Mass by doing one of the readings in Spanish.

As a sign of devotion, students bring gifts to the altar of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Patroness of Americas honored

To pay homage to Our Lady of Guadalupe, various Spanish students from all levels shared in a Eucharistic Celebration in the school chapel on December 12.

The annual Mass was celebrated by Father Gerald J. Burns with students involved through the liturgical readings, the singing and the offertory procession.

The chapel was specially decorated for the occasion with Spanish banners, the "Eyes of God," and Aztec geometric forms representing the Supreme God. These decorations, in combination with the eagerness and cooperation of the students resulted in a beautiful form of adoration for the commemoration of the feast of the Patroness of the Americas — Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Snowless slopes plague senior outing

Strong winds and cold temperatures didn't stop Hoban's seniors from investigating the surroundings.

George Monaghan slips a ball in the side pocket as Brian Drevitch looks the other way.

Following lunch, Diane Marino and Kathy Straub attempt to catch something better-tasting for dinner.

Taking time to rest from the winter events, Jim Chopack, Gerard Ott, and Dave Medzerian pause in front of the Host Farms gift shop.

Fence-leaning proves to be one of the high points of the activities at Host Farms.

Several smiling seniors swing sportively in front of the scenic slushy slope.

Posing as the pinball wizard, Norman John finds amusement in the game room.

Barbara Williams and Martha Zulawski rest following an exhilarating bus trip.

Teddy Ritsick makes a quick exit.

Antlers up!

Don Armbruster plans his next move.

The "team" behind the teams

As the pep rally reaches near hysteria, Jay Ropietski begins to doze off.

As the crowd chants his name, Norman John waits to introduce the team members.

Coach Hine congratulates the fans for their support and asks them to continue cheering the team on.

Promoting full involvement, Mrs. Majikes sets down the rules for winning the "spirit stick".

Juniors make their presence known.

During the pep rally before the Wyoming Area game, Brian Leighton offers some words of wisdom to seniors Matt Choman and Bill Thornton.

Independence temporarily

Resembling two strong Indian chiefs (alias Ned Lenahan and Kevin Hapeman) stare expressionlessly as they await the highest bid from their future masters.

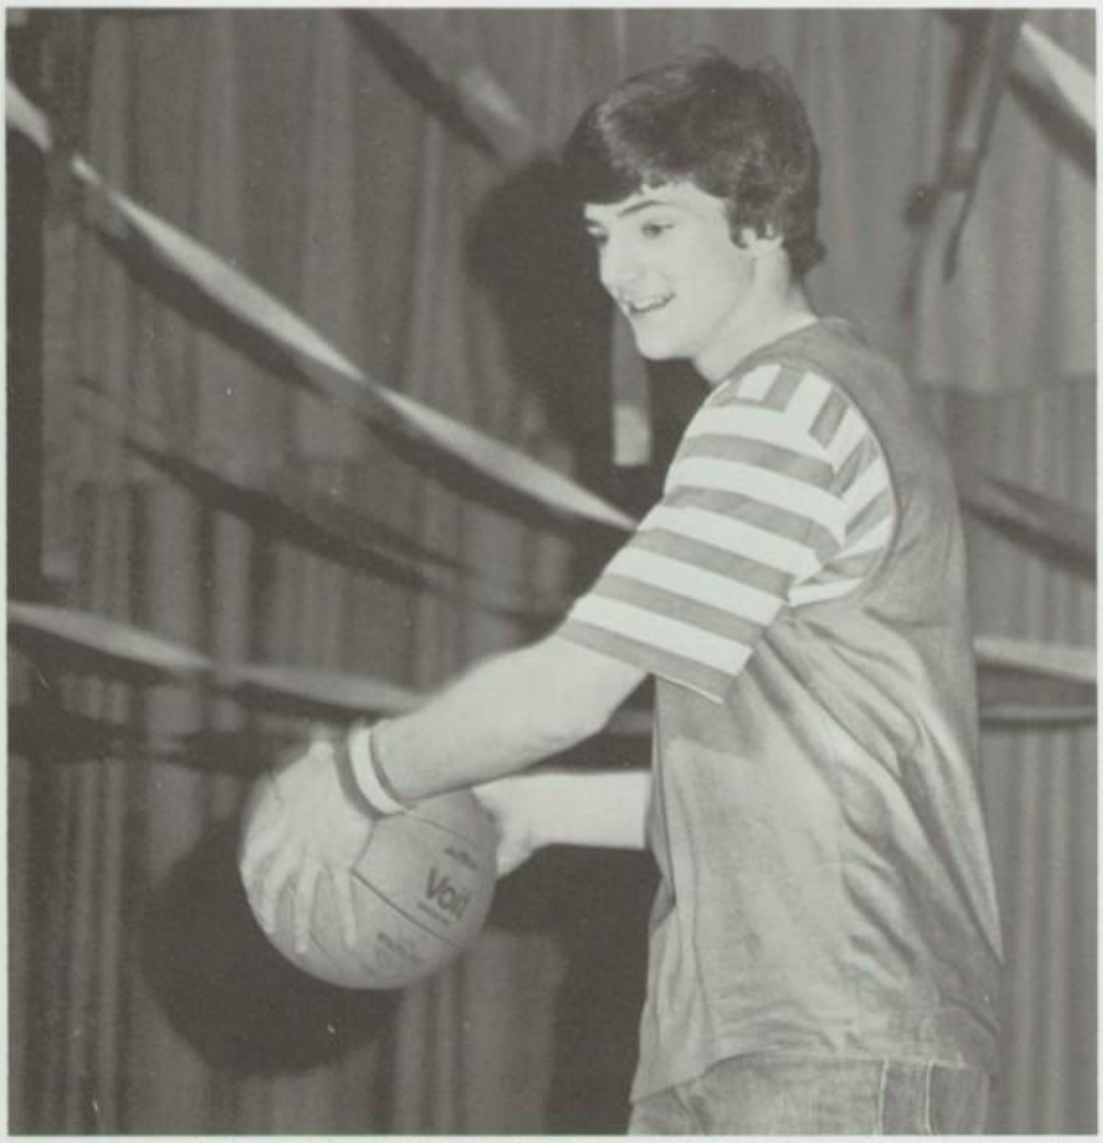
Using any methods she can, Kathy Youngblood hopes to find a considerate owner.

Completely attired with their own set of chains, Carol Stark, B. J. Schwerdtman and Patsie McKeown prove to be a fine example of true "Argents".

The money kept pouring in to the capable hands of Ann Cunningham, Kathy Straub and Carole James.

Juniors Cheryl Roche, Susie Stilp and Mary Lynn Stofey take their place on the auction block.

halted at Argent Auction



Attempting to bring in a large bid, basketball star Mickey Banas displays his talent while being auctioned off.

With over 100 students offering their "services" the second Argent Auction drew a response from the Hoban community which netted over $600.

The day saw a variety of students from all levels "boarding the plank" to be auctioned off to the student body. Once bought, these Argents were bound by the wishes of their masters in performing such tasks as carrying books, opening doors, pulling out chairs, and assisting them in the ordinary school-day tasks.

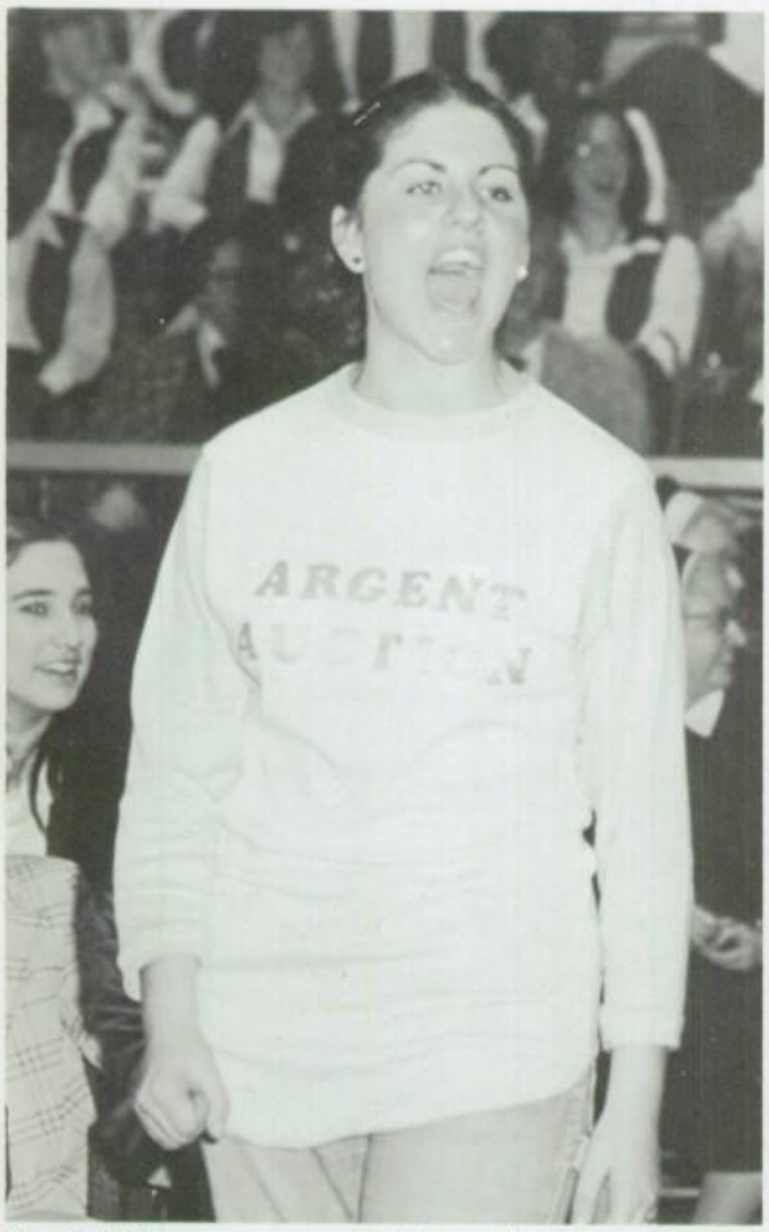
This year's high bid was brought about by the auctioning off of faculty coordinator, Mr. Kevin Blaum. Numerous members of the junior class compiled their savings to produce a grand sum of $68.25. Along with this special sale there were over seventy opportunities for members of the audience to outbid one another and buy his or her own personal Argent.

Seniors Bob Alexander, Toot Majikes, John Gill and Mike Bozentka enthusiastically aroused both faculty and students to participate as they served as the official Argent auctioneers.

Assisting Mr. Blaum was senior Bea Cravatta who volunteered to act as chairperson for this successful event.

John Gill and Mike Bozentka do a little "song and dance act" to get the show on the road as auctioneer Toot Majikes starts the bidding.

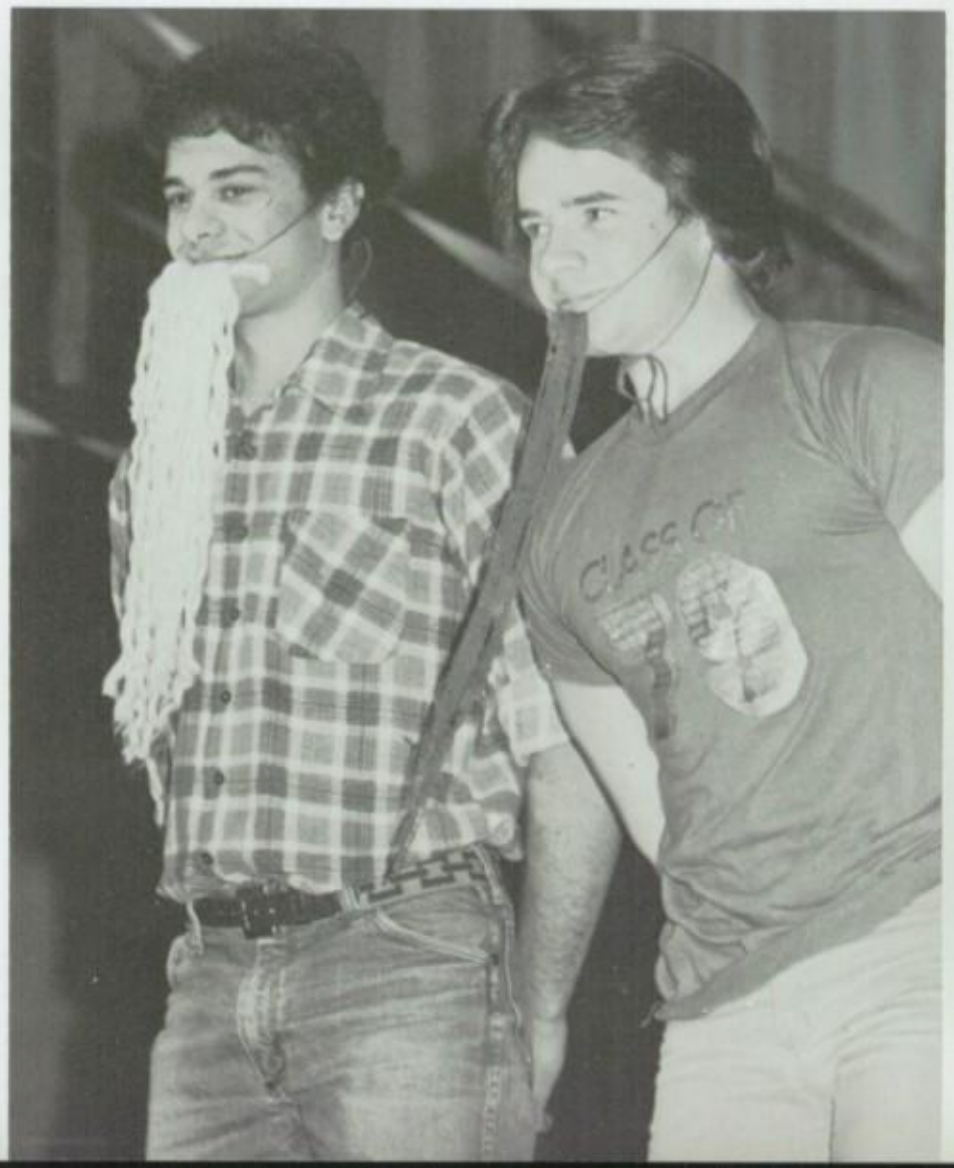
Like lambs led to the slaughter, freshman females make fine slaves for the bidding.



Vocal ability proves very effective as chairperson Bea Cravatta gets the audience "psyched" for the auction.

Mr. Kane checks with cashier Ann Cunningham to see if there is a money back guarantee on his "Argent".

As two bidders fight for them, Sharon Johanssen, Tweet Farrell, and Kathy Moran wait to see who will own them for the day.



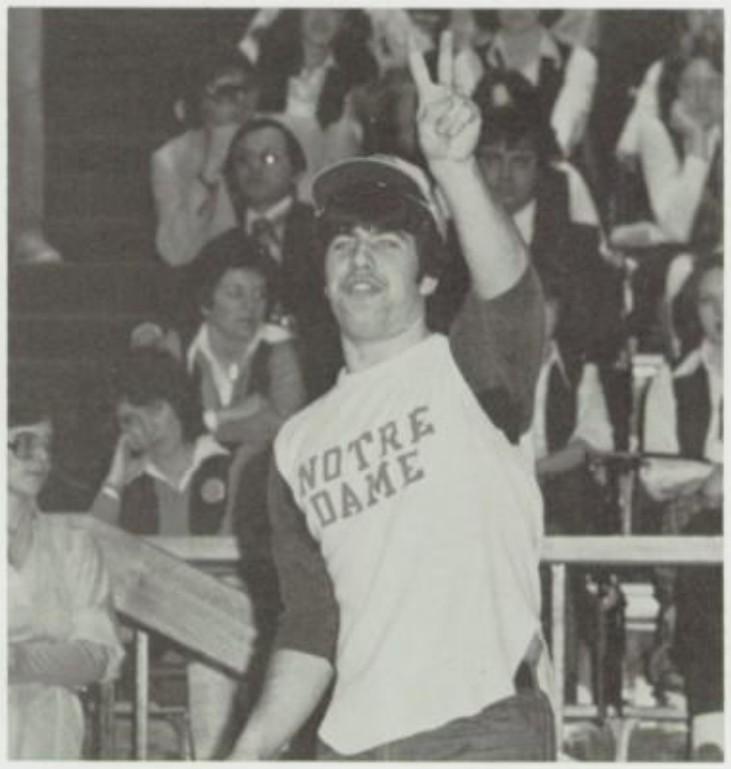
Mark Gentilesco and Mike Gelsleichter "age" as they wait for someone to buy them.

120 minutes of non-stop bidding

John Grochowski develops a splitting headache as the auction nears an end.

How could anyone resist the willing, capable, and stylish Dave Columbus, George Gushanus and Andy Grosek?

Using all his charm and persuasive powers, Charlie Majikes moves the auction along at a fast pace.



Spotting a new bidder, Bill Thornton relays the two dollar offer.

A pleasant atmosphere prevailed throughout the afternoon as seniors and their mothers visit with friends and make new acquaintances.

More than 400 students and mothers enjoyed a festive afternoon of conversation and refreshments as the Class of '79 sponsored the first Senior Tea on Sunday, February 4, in conjunction with the Parents Club.

The cafeteria, decorated in red and white for the upcoming Valentine's Day, set the scene for the occasion. Many of the mothers and volunteers from the senior class prepared for the tea and then served a variety of refreshments including punch, cookies, pastries and sandwiches.

The tea proved a huge success and it was hoped by all concerned that the event would continue for future senior classes.

The refreshments were plentiful and both seniors and parents seemed to enjoy themselves.

The first senior tea was initiated through the efforts of the Parents Club. This year's officers include: Seated: Mrs. Mary Swirbel, Mrs. Betty Anistranski, president; Mr. Joseph Long, Mrs. Jackie Skibicki. Standing: Mrs. Rose Panzitta, Mr. John Thomas.

SENIOR TEA COMMITTEE: Mrs. Cravatta, Mrs. Kurovsky, Mrs. McCarthy, Eileen Toole, Kathy Farrell, Mia Kurovsky, Christopher Cavanaugh, Cathy Sura, Katie McCarthy, Mrs. Cavanaugh, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Koval.

Senior tea adds a touch of class

A large turnout of parents and seniors made the first tea a huge success.

Donna Greytock looks over the vast selection of pastries and sandwiches.

Waiting to make their way to the refreshment table, seniors and their mothers find time to smile for the camera.

Special services foster religious awareness by student participation

During a break in the retreat schedule Father Fallon shares some of his own experiences with the students.

Father Fantaskey imparts his blessing following the sacrament of reconciliation.

Retreat director, Father Robert Fallon, leads the freshmen and sophomores in song.

Juniors and seniors participate in the closing liturgy following a day-long retreat.

An interested group of girls listen to Hoban graduate Sister Ann, SCC, as she answers their questions concerning vocations.

Preparing for the Christmas season, Father Kearney blesses the advent wreath as Mike Villacrusis and Lynda Zajaczkowski participate in the lighting of the first candle.

Steve Scherer observes closely as his blood pressure is taken.

Caroline Mouallem gets some reassuring words from Mrs. Toole.

Seniors rally to donate blood

Senior volunteers work with Father Foley to complete the information forms needed for the blood donors.

The assembly line process works well as four red-blooded students contribute their pints to the Red Cross.

Red Cross Nurse Esther Wheeler prepares Leon Ostrowski for his first donation of blood.

Rich Yankowski feels reassured after the painless procedure begins.

Roman Catholics face changes in

POPE PAUL VI

POPE JOHN PAUL I

papacy with faith, hope and love

POPE JOHN PAUL II

For fifteen years Pope Paul VI served as Bishop of Rome and successor of St. Peter. Pope Paul labored through many difficult times to move the Church forward in a changing world. He worked relentlessly to bring about world peace. The "pilgrim pope" traveled throughout the world gaining the love and respect of people everywhere. With his death on Sunday, August 6, 1978 passed a humble man who carried the burdens of his office with love and courage.

Three weeks after the death of Pope Paul the world received the news that the cardinals of the Church had chosen a new Pontiff. What no one knew that day was that the new pope, John Paul I, would serve the briefest pontificate in three and a half centuries. Thirty-three days after his election, Pope John Paul I would be called home to his Father. In his few days as the leader of the world's 700 million Roman Catholics he had performed no great deeds, but the impression of love, humility and faith that he left was immeasurable and he gave to a world besieged by problems a deep and meaningful example.

On October 16, 1978 for the second time in six weeks the name of the new pope was announced to the world by the Dean of the College of Cardinals from the balcony of St. Peter's Basilica. The name Karol Wojtyla, Pope John Paul II, was spoken and after a brief moment of surprised silence the crowd roared its approval. With this announcement came the end to a 456 year tradition of Italian popes. The new pope hailed from Eastern Europe, Poland, a country long known for its courage and devotion to the church. The Pope's first public appearance endeared him to the Italian people and the world. His candid manner and genuine warmth reminded the world of John Paul I and the knowledge of his accomplishments behind the Iron Curtain conveyed the strength possessed by the highly respected Paul VI.

Father Gerald J. Burns
Principal

In the midst of many changes, the administration continues to provide the stability needed to bring about a successful school year.

For the eighth year, Father Burns assumed the primary responsibility for the operation of Bishop Hoban High School. Continuing his "open door" policy, Father strove to maintain close contact with the student body and to offer them every opportunity for moral, educational and social growth.

During the summer, Sister Georgeanne arrived and assumed responsibility for the scheduling and all other academic areas. Students soon found Sister to be helpful and understanding, regardless of the problems they may have encountered.

It may be impossible for a person to be in two places at one time; however, Mr. Majikes appeared at times to be in many places at the same time. The smooth running of the school day could generally be guaranteed because of his capabilities and foresight. Mr. Majikes pours his time and talents into every aspect of life at Hoban.

Academic atmosphere undergoes alteration

It was the year of the "A" day! After the initial shock everyone soon adjusted to the slightly lengthened days. With the elimination of Friday's activity period and the return of the CCD classes to the individual parishes "B" days became scarce.

The year also saw a change in the academic vice principal's office for the first time since Hoban opened its doors in 1971. Sister Georgeanne, SCC arrived in August and assumed the responsibilities for all of Hoban's academic programs. In addition to Sister Georgeanne, nine new teachers joined the Hoban faculty.

Teachers continued to provide the momentum as Hoban's students spent the year excelling in competition and capturing prizes and awards in every field.

A number of seniors traveled to King's College every day to take college courses in math, science and English.

Girls envision victorious season

As the 1979 Softball season gets underway Hoban will field its most experienced team ever. Seniors Debbie Zavislak, Betty Jean Schwerdtman, Diane Overa, Katie McCarthy and Cathy Schmidt will join with Coach Judy Lugiano in leading the team. Junior infielders Daria Vodzak, Kathy Miskin, Leah Koval and Donna Wajers along with catcher Cathy Ferry prove that three years of playing together leads to outstanding results.

Coach Lugiano summarizes the team's hopes: "I am very excited and anxious about the season. The girls' attitude and pride are fantastic. It definitely compliments their ability and desire to win."

Golfers head for the greens

Leading the Bishop Hoban Duffers through an uphill season of competition were juniors Ken Fisher and Brian Pallis. Both entered District II competition following a season of outstanding golfing. Novices George Stozenski, Keith Koury and John Clisham supported Fisher and Pallis with their abilities on the greens. Not to be outdone, Hoban's female competitors once again contributed their golfing talents. Nancy Slivinski, Regina Bayley and Lisa McGough showed continual improvement and aided the team on many occasions. The team members were taught the finer points of the game by Coach Len Matysczak.

John Harding: "Well coach, at least I have the right shirt on."

Working hard to defend their District II title the Argents of Bishop Hoban entered into a season of tough competition. Their final log was an impressive 11-2. This included seven consecutive wins and five shutouts. The season opened with outstanding running by Dan Vestyck and Paul Konopelski at The Cliff Robbins Memorial Race. The Argents opened their regular season with four victories before losing their only two races against Meyers and Nanticoke. The remainder of the schedule saw the Argents winning seven in a row. Vestyck and Konopelski were outstanding in their weekly encounters with the opposition. In district competition Steve Scherer placed 4th and was the only Valley runner to qualify for the state finals. Seniors Joe Anistranski, Bob Nardone, Mary Gattuso and Ed Rayeski could always be counted on to ensure victories in a sport where team work means so much. Though the Argents did not retain the title they proved they were champions in every sense of the word.

Argent gridders

BISHOP HOBAN 10 — G.A.R. 21

Plains Stadium set the stage for the Argents first game. Hoban's Ron Majewski put the first three points on the board with a field goal from the nine yard line. The Grenadiers came back and the halftime score was 14-3. A long drive by the Argents led to Hoban's final touchdown of the game as Leon Ostrowski pushed in from the one yard line and Majewski made the extra point.

BISHOP HOBAN 6 — VALLEY WEST 47

The end of the first quarter found Bishop Hoban and West tied 6-6. Hoban's first and only score came when Dennis Lavan drove in from the 16 yard line. The Argents suffered many setbacks due to costly penalties. Hoban's ex-Spartan mentor, Jim Fennell, watched as Valley West overpowered the Argents and won 47-6. However, this game did see Hoban snap West's string of shutouts at eight.

BISHOP HOBAN 29 — MEYERS 39

Although the Argents suffered their third setback of the season they played well and gained the distinction of scoring the most points against Meyers thus far in the season. Ostrowski, Kucewicz and Lavan led the 63 yard drive which led to the Argent's first touchdown. Jim Foley intercepted a pass in the second quarter putting the Argents in good field position. Joe Slavoski's pass to Tom Nardone was on target and Nardone carried the ball in making the score 14-14. Stan Kucewicz recovered a Meyer's fumble on the 7 and at the end of the third the Argents were only down by a point. Fourth quarter action saw Slavoski completing a touchdown pass to Stan Kucewicz. Meyers controlled the ball for most of the fourth quarter and the fighting Hoban team went down to a 39-29 loss.

BISHOP HOBAN 7 LAKE LEHMAN 30

Hoban traveled to Lake Lehman for an afternoon contest under bright skies. Lehman dampened the Hoban spirit with an early 2-0 lead. Dennis Lavan responded with a 67 yard run for the Argent touchdown. The lead was short-lived as the Knights put 14 more points on the board before the half. Their locker room lead was strengthened by two more touchdowns in the third quarter leaving the Argents behind.

BISHOP HOBAN 7 — PITTSTON 14

The Argents were 39 seconds and a holding penalty away from their first victory of the season; however, one of Hoban's most exciting contests of the season ended in a 14-7 Patriot victory and the Argents would have to wait to taste victory. Pittston took an early 6-0 lead. Hoban's Jim Foley took advantage of a Patriot fumble and proceeded to drive 40 yards. Leon Ostrowski then scored from a yard out and the Argents went ahead 7-6. This score held until Pittston scored with 39 seconds remaining in the game leaving the team and fans stunned.

BISHOP HOBAN 32 — HANOVER 6

After five valiant efforts the Argents truly celebrated Homecoming with their first victory of the season. Jim Davenport and Leon Ostrowski took credit for two touchdowns apiece while teammates Joe Slavoski and Stan Kucewicz each added a touchdown to put Hoban on the board with a 32-0 score. Hanover scored in the final quarter and the game ended with the Argents celebrating a long awaited win.

BISHOP HOBAN 7 — NANTICOKE 12

Nanticoke's head coach admitted following this game that "Bishop Hoban is no longer a team that can be taken lightly." Coach Fennell termed the game "another near miss." The Argent eleven held a 7-0 lead against the heavily favored Trojans. The seven points came about as Dennis Lavan scurried down field to the 4 yard line. Ostrowski moved in for the 6 points and Majewski kicked the extra point. Early in the third Mike Boyle intercepted the ball, but a Hoban fumble soon ended the drive. A third quarter touchdown by Nanticoke ended the scoring as the Argents held them through the fourth quarter. Coach Jim Fennell summarized everyone's feelings when he said, "Nobody looks down at us anymore."

BISHOP HOBAN 28 — BISHOP O'REILLY 22

For the first time in Hoban's history the football team defeated rival Bishop O'Reilly and brought Coach Fennell his 150th career win. It was a fight to the final seconds as the lead changed hands six times during the game. A 72 yard TD pass from Slavoski to John Grochowski put Hoban ahead 6-0. O'Reilly bounced back and scored 7. Jim Davenport scored on an 11 yard run near the end of the first half to send the Argents to the locker room with a 14-7 lead. Half way through the third the Queensmen moved into the lead 15-14. Stan Kucewicz then scored on a four yard pitch from Slavoski. The back and forth battle proceeded as O'Reilly came back with an 83 yard drive to lead by two. With the score 22-20 Jim Davenport crept in from the one and ran the two point conversion. With four minutes left in the game the Argents held O'Reilly and walked away with victory number two for the season.

BISHOP HOBAN 8 — DALLAS 7

Bishop Hoban came through in what Coach Fennell called "one of the best performances I've seen of not giving up." Dallas made their presence known when they slipped into the end zone giving them a 7-0 locker room lead. Hoban's drive to the goal started on the fourth quarter kickoff. Faced with a fourth down and inches to go Leon Ostrowski picked up the first down. The combined efforts of Tom Nardone and Jim Davenport advanced Hoban to the Dallas 19. A one yard run by Leon Ostrowski culminated the Argent drive. Coach Fennell gambled and went for a two point conversion. John Grochowski completed a pass to Mike Pasternick and an elated Hoban team captured its third victory of the season.

BISHOP HOBAN 18 — COUGHLIN 35

The clash between Hoban and neighboring rival Coughlin was not as close as the Argents might have liked; however, a number of strong performances and a fine team spirit made the loss less difficult to take. Coughlin took an early 7-0 lead followed by another drive for 8 points. The Hoban squad responded with a 49 yard drive topped by a keeper with Joe Slavoski making it 14-6. The Crusaders scored again making it 21-6 at the half. Back from the locker room, the Crusaders took charge by pushing 70 yards for another touchdown. Argent's Stan Kucewicz put Hoban on the board making it 28-12. Junior Jim Davenport picked up a Coughlin punt and scrambled 76 yards to bring Hoban within ten of the Crusaders. The battle continued as Shimshock carried the pigskin in for a final 35-18 score.

BISHOP HOBAN 14 — WYOMING AREA 42

Wyoming Area Stadium was the scene of Hoban's final contest of the year. The Warriors scored on their first possession to make it 7-0. Before the half they scored three more times and went to the locker room with a 28-0 lead. Second half play opened with another Wyoming Area touchdown. Determined not to be shut out the Argents put 7 points on the board with a pass from Slavoski to Kucewicz. Minutes later Ted Kross intercepted a Wyoming Area pass to start the Hoban team on a 44 yard drive. Leon Ostrowski scored the 6 and Ron Majewski kicked the extra point to make the final score 42-14.

Moving behind a solid wall of tackles Andy Kosmach returns the punt.

O'Reilly game marks Fennell's 150th win

Along with the total input and dedication of the Argent football team, the main ingredient for success still lies with Coach Jim Fennell. Mr. Fennell came to Bishop Hoban during the summer of 1977. He brought with him a manner and talent which made him one of the most respected coaches in the Wyoming Valley. His task was to transform a struggling young team into a worthy contender for league play. He achieved his goal this year as the Hoban team received the commendation they rightly deserved. Along with this accomplishment, Coach Fennell reached his 150th career victory in his more than twenty years coaching football. He provides Hoban with great confidence for the present and great promise for the future.

The Argent performance is scrutinized by the keen eye of veteran Coach Jim Fennell.

An improved Girls' Basketball Team ended the season with a 10-11 record. Despite their great potential, the girls, with eight returning seniors, did not seem quite able to get it together. However, under the direction of Coach Judy Lugiano, the girls continued to display great spirit and pride. Everyone on the team had the opportunity to participate throughout the season. Seniors B. J. Schwerdtman and Mary Gattuso, junior Donna Wajers, and sophomore Charlene Hurst led the team in its efforts this season. The season ended with a heart-stopping victory over Pittston Area when sophomore Charlene Hurst sank the final bucket as the buzzer sounded.

The junior varsity girls ended a tremendous season with an 18-2 overall record.

Combining sheer aggressiveness with excellent ball-handling, the eleven member team proved too powerful for the vast majority of their competitors.

Regular high scorers Chris Reiss, Lynda Zjaczkowski, and Roberta Garbett joined their efforts with talented team members in producing a fine year of ball playing. Other players who contributed to the team's success included Gina Galardi, Mary Pat Cosgrove, Patrice Fasulka, Laura Nork, Shelia Klepar, and Theresa Ziemba. The team's unique spirit and their skill on the court proved rewarding for all concerned.

Argent girls establish new swim dynasty

This year's girls swim team made it official — they are second to none!

The girls captured their first district title and left their closest contender 100 points behind. Under the direction of Coach Susan Bosher the Hoban aquamaids set three new district records and were lead in this victory by freshman A'lisa Woicicki. A'lisa individually set new 50 and 100 freestyle records and joined with Stacey and Tracey Summerfield and Virginia Panaway to break the 400 relay record. Senior Eileen Woods retained her district diving crown and impressed the overflow crowd at King's College Pool with her poise and talent. Kira Waznik, Kelly Girmen and Mary Sembrat joined Stacey Summerfield in capturing the 200 Medley Relay.

The District Championship climaxed a season which saw the Hoban girls sweeping the league without a loss and gaining the League Title for a second year. Diver Eileen Woods ended the regular season without a loss. The highly respected and strong team combined the experience of its veterans and the phenomenal vitality of its newcomers. The girls showed great confidence and the depth of the team's talent allowed it to glide through a schedule of competitors which grows stronger every year.

The tradition of winning is destined to continue. Hoban was well-represented in the State Swimming and Diving Championships at State College. Mary Sembrat, Kira Waznik, Kelly Girmen, Stacey Summerfield, A'lisa Woicicki, Eileen Woods, Tracey Summerfield, and Virginia Panaway competed on March 9 and 10.

G.A.R. opponents stand amazed as Mickey Banas snatches the rebound.

Living up to popular expectations, the Argent cagers wound up the pre-season with an exceptional 12-1 record. A number of special events made the victories even sweeter. Coach Chet Hine in his seventh year of coaching the varsity team reached his 100th victory in a 70-54 win over Bishop Klonowski.

Another first for Hoban occurred when senior Bill "thunder" Thornton hit his 1000th point in a home game against Hanover, sparking the flame that continued to burn throughout the season.

Success smiled on the Argents as they opened the year with victories over Allentown Catholic and Bishop Hafey to capture the Hafey Tournament for the second consecutive year. The Bishop's Tourney saw seven Diocesan high schools competing and the Argents walking away as the victors, and for the third time in three years the Argents finished their exhibition season by capturing the McGrane Tournament held at the C.Y.C.

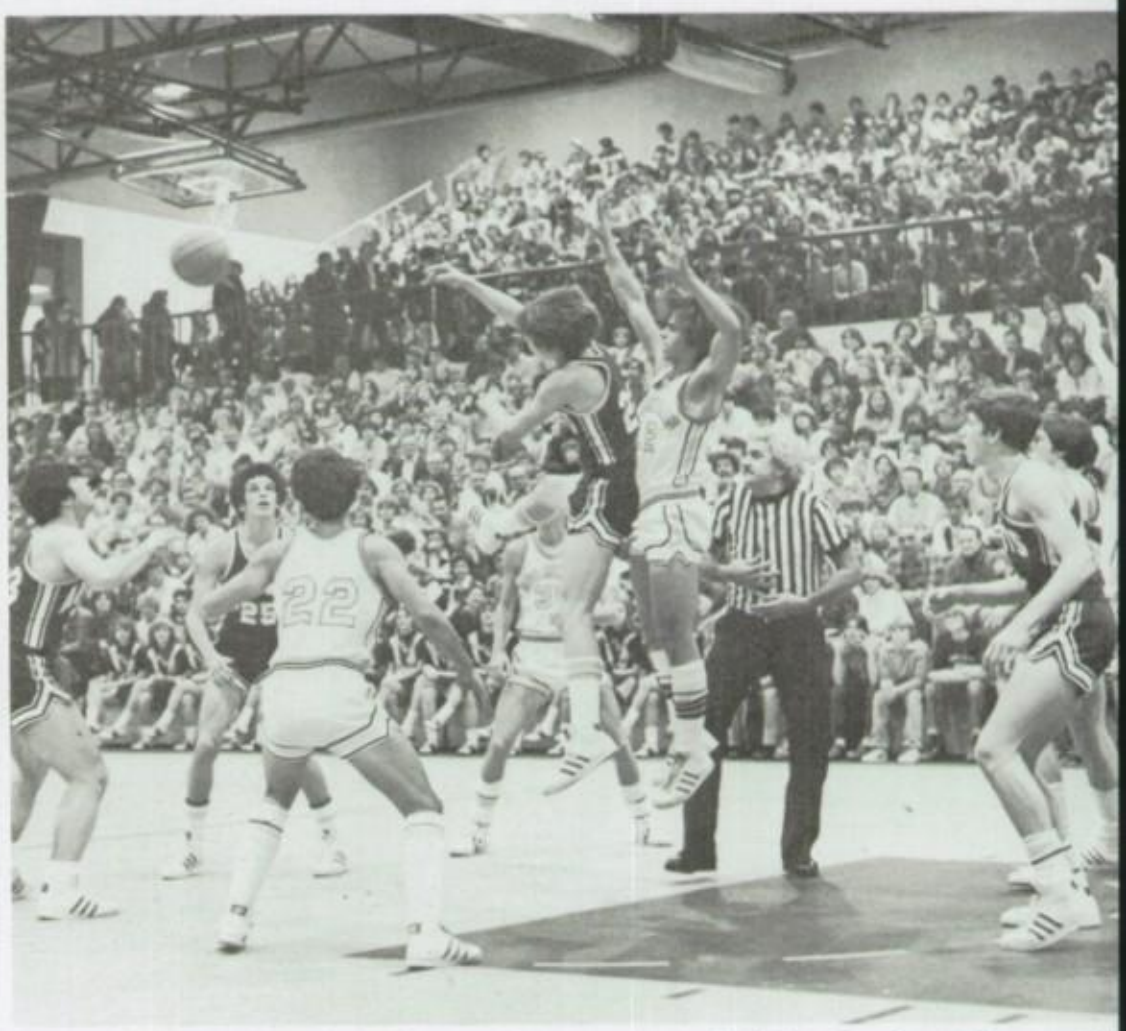
After a few anxious seconds it was confirmed by the officials that the time had expired. Bishop Hoban had captured its first AAA League Title in a game that proved to be an appropriate climax to a season which saw some of the finest talent ever playing for Hoban.

The squad came into first half play looking to team work to supply the necessary ingredients of height and speed. Hoban faced one tough competitor after another, ending the first half with a 7-0 slate. With Norman John, Mickey Banas and Tom Kosin under the boards and Bill Thornton, John Grochowski, Matt Choman and Joe Slavoski handling the outside, the Argents became invincible. The depth of the team became apparent to all when leading scorer Bill Thornton had to sit out four games in the first half due to an injury.

The second half was game per game as exciting as the first half. The Argents were side-tracked momentarily by the Nanticoke Trojans who handed them their first loss of the regular season. Hoban bounced back stronger than ever to defeat Wyoming, Coughlin and Meyers. In the final game, an 82-63 triumph over Pittston Area placed Hoban in the decisive match to determine the second half champs.

At the Scranton CYC the stage was set, the players and coaches were ready, and the fans were totally psyched — all aiding the momentum that flowed all season and wouldn't be stopped as Hoban edged the Warriors 76-75.



Bill Thornton and Joe Slavoski are at the receiving end of John Grochowski's tap off.

The Spartans can only stand back and watch as Tom Kosin drives in for the basket.

Season

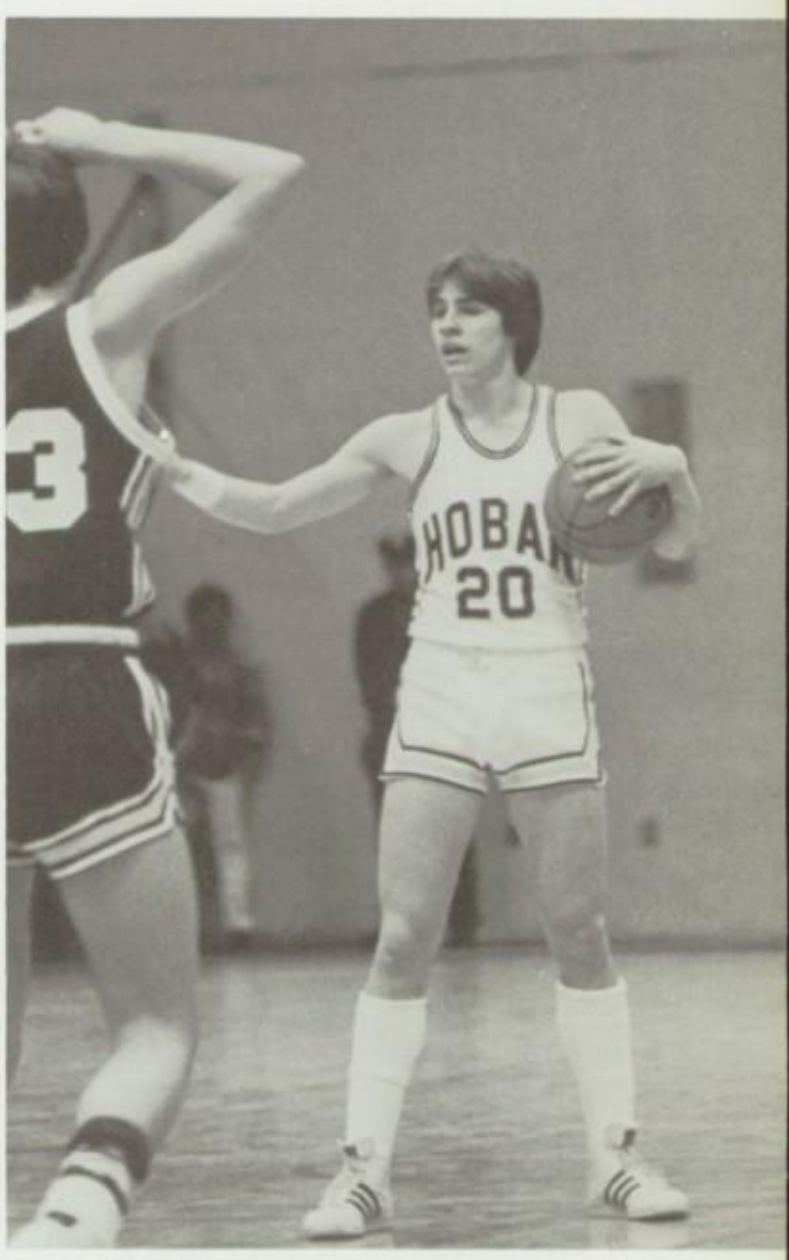
first league title

During the Argents first game against Coughlin, Norman John goes up for the tap.

With the last second ticking off the clock, Stan Kucewicz's shot swished through the bucket giving the Argents reasons for rejoicing.

As hard as they tried, the Spartans couldn't stop Bill Thornton.

The Trojans find it virtually impossible to stop Mickey Banas.



Hoping to slow the game John Grochowski takes a breather and looks around for his teammates.

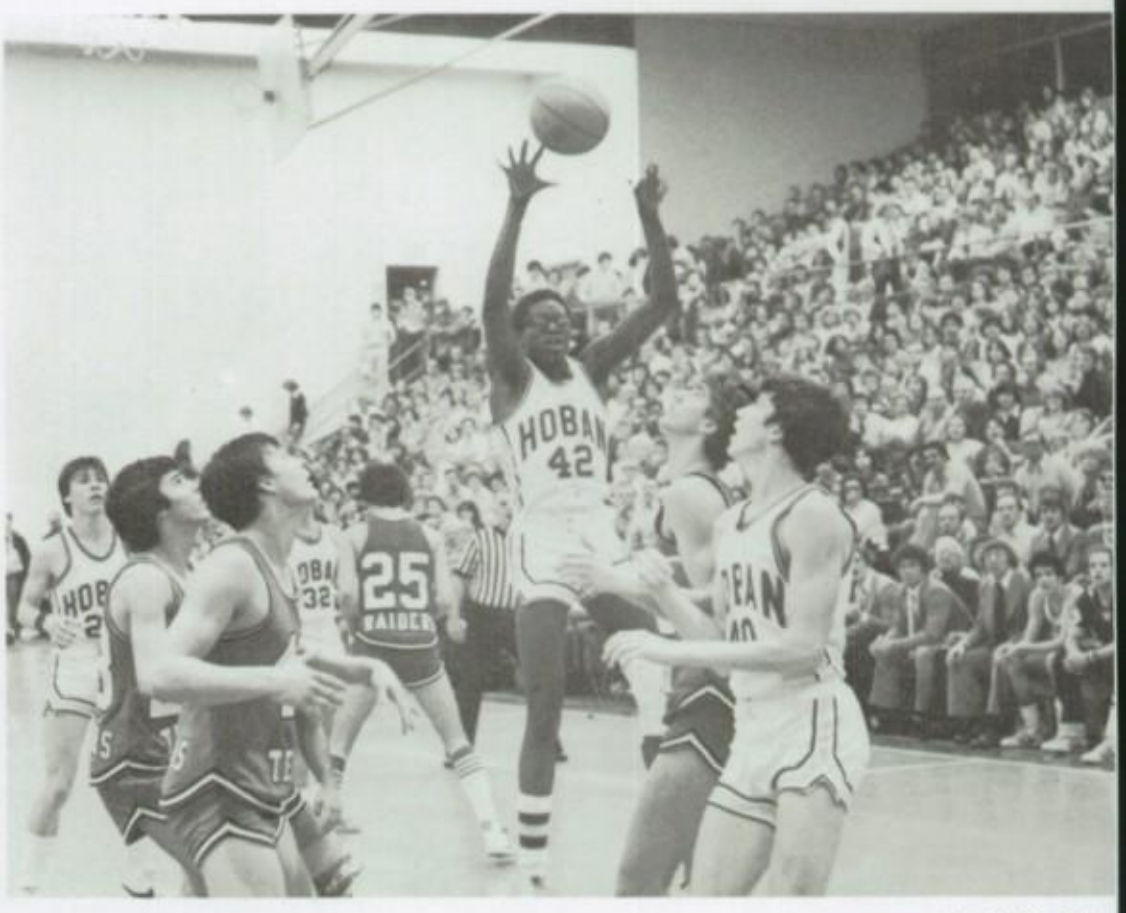
The spirit of the Bishop Hoban cagers could not be contained after they won the school's first League Title. The enthusiasm of the post-league crusade was sparked by a heart-stopping 52-50 win over Scranton Tech in the District II semi-finals at King's College Gym. The Argents next repeated their performance by defeating Scranton Central at the Scranton CYC 52-50 and by doing so brought home the school's first District II Title. Hoopsters Bill Thornton, Mickey Banas, Norman John, Tom Kosin, John Grochowski, Joe Slavoski and Matt Choman proceeded to lead the team in its winning campaign by defeating the Royals of Upper Darby 60-53. The Eastern Quarterfinal found Hoban traveling to Harrisburg to face bigger and "better" things from Lebanon with its all-American 7'1" Sam Bowie. The unsuspecting forest of Lebanon Cedars fell to the Argents 65-60. The Argents moved one step closer as they prepared to meet a strong Coatesville team. A crowd of 5,000 people gathered to watch the Argents play in their final game as the Red Raiders made a last minute comeback to defeat the Hoban squad 79-73.

It was a truly great season. The Argents had advanced further than any other Wyoming Valley team had gone in the last eighteen years. Coach Chet Hine finished his seventh year with career total of 121 wins, and senior Bill Thornton reached a record 1500 points. Bishop Hoban was ranked tenth in the state of Pennsylvania and the entire Wyoming Valley shared in its pride and joy.

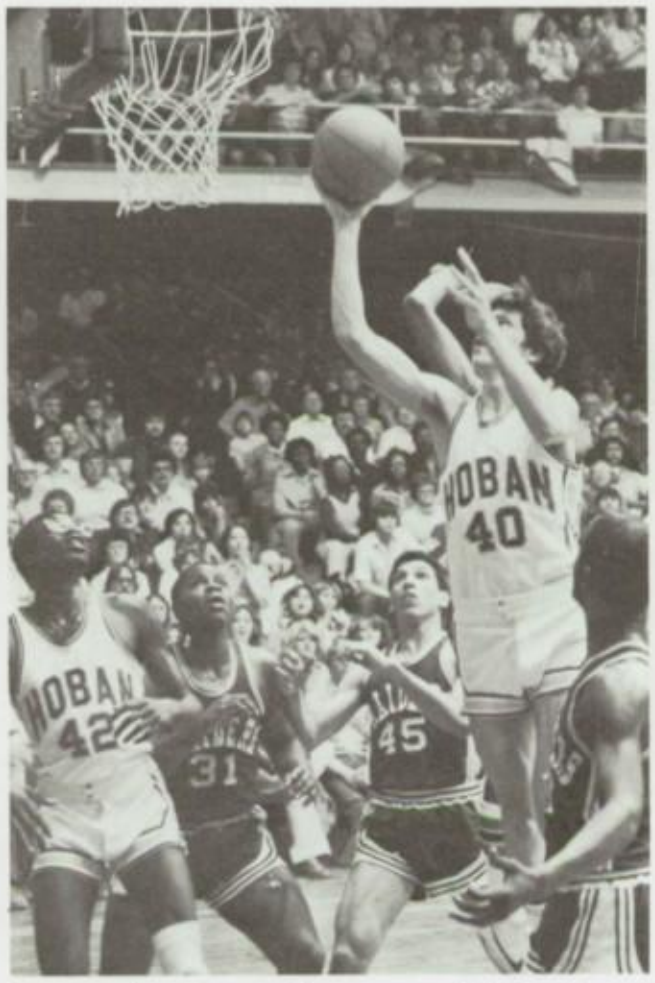


Being stopped short by the Scranton Tech defense, Norman John passes the ball off to Mickey Banas.

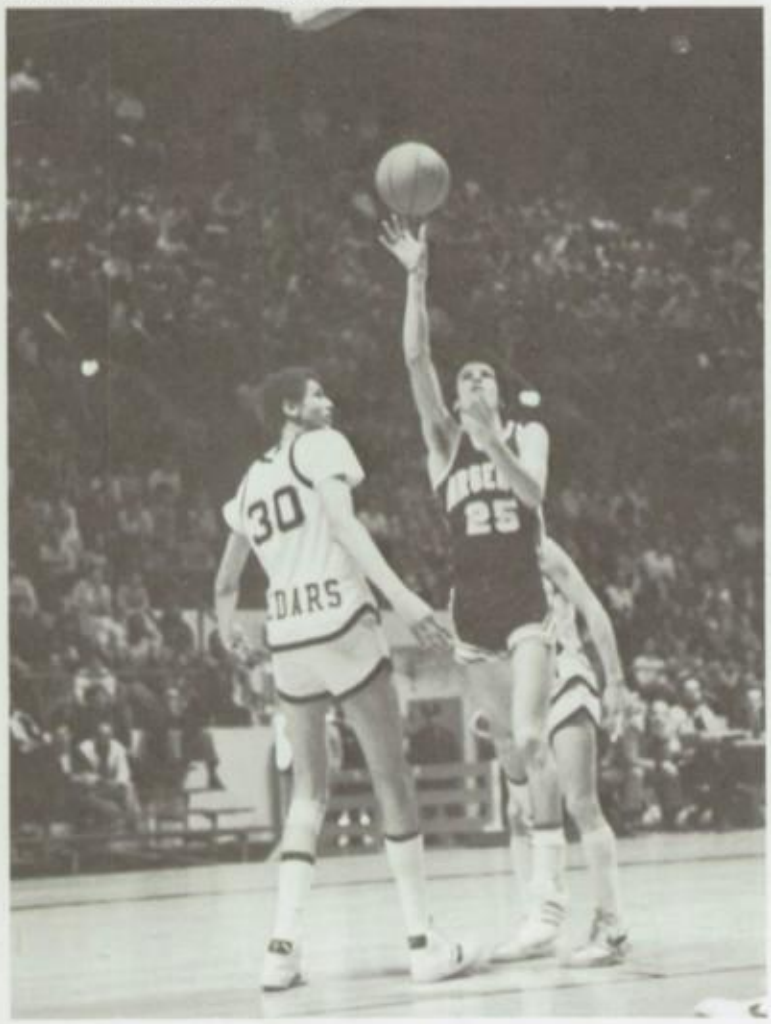
Boxed in by two Scranton Central players, John Grochowski takes to the air.

Title — Moves to Eastern Semi-finals

All the Upper Darby Royals can do is watch as Tom Kosin moves in under the boards and scores.



Ignoring the Coatesville pressure, Mickey Banas gives the Argents two more.



Lebanon's Sam Bowie seems stunned as Joe Slavoski breezes by him at the Harrisburg Farm Show Arena.

An elated Norman John and a surprised Lebanon team watch as Bill Thornton grabs the rebound and starts down court.

JV's keep pace with the varsity

The Junior Varsity team had a tough pace set for them by the varsity. Yet, the young Argents were not really overshadowed as they measured up notably by posting 18 wins and only 3 losses. Coach James Maloney looked for strength in juniors Ray Yedlock, Brian Leighton and Joe Koval along with sophomore standouts Jim Curry, Mike Overa and Dan Polacheck. During the exhibition season the junior varsity suffered only one defeat at the hands of a strong Union-Endicott team. After an initial league loss to Valley West the team moved through a perfect first half. During the second half of competition the JV's lost only to Bishop O'Reilly at the Kingston gym. The line of winning Hoban teams seems destined to continue.

High-scoring Brian Leighton makes it look easy as he adds two more.

The Patriots will have to wait as Ray Yedlock sends the tap into Argent hands.

Mike Overa brings the ball down court.

After a fast drive Stan Kucewicz goes under the basket for two against the Mohawks.

Despite the interference Gil Simon gets the ball up and in.

Dan Polacheck moves in to grab a pass.

Despite the O'Reilly defense George Platko goes up for two.

"Now get out there and show them what you're made of."

Learning the basics and gaining the self-discipline needed to compete is essential if a team is to be successful. Coach Larry Walko stressed the fundamentals and produced another winning team. A number of close games ended in losses for the youngest Argents, but even with the losses their 13-9 record was admirable.

Freshmen look to Ed Morgan to send the ball their way.

Frosh complete successful season

Individual performances impressive

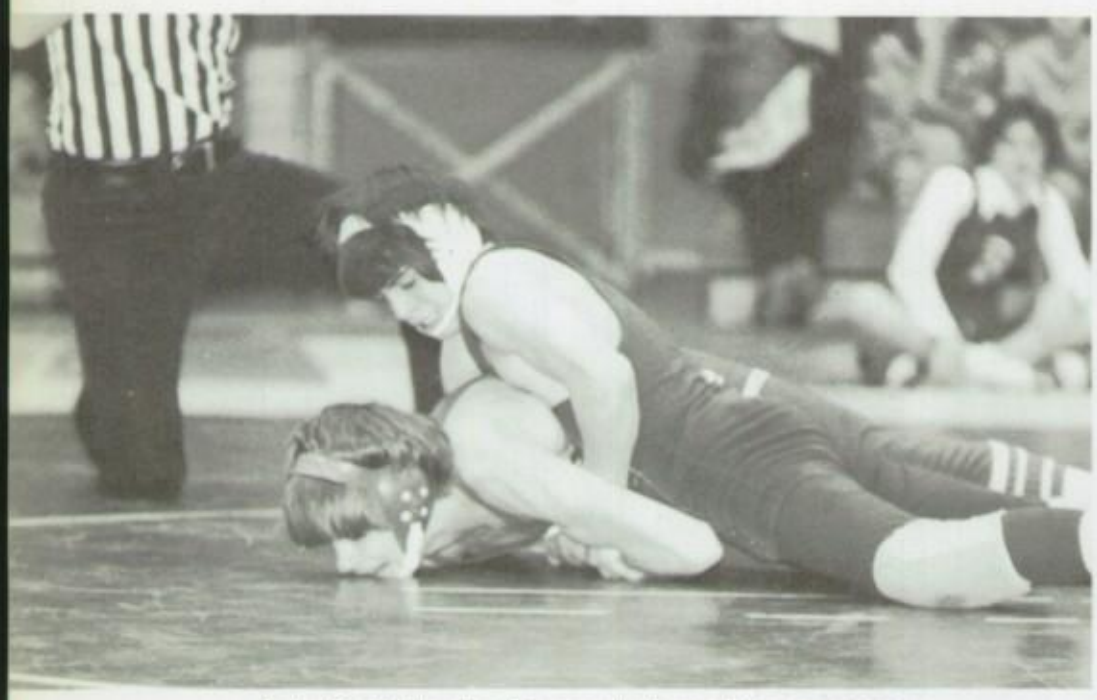
Pysched for another win, one of Hoban's top wrestlers Leon Ostrowski aggressively approaches his next victim.

As it has been for the last few seasons, the wrestling squad record was somewhat lopsided — not in favor of the Argents. However, in a man-to-man sport the record only tells part of the story. It does not tell about the long hours of grueling practice, the starving to maintain weight levels or the individual stamina of each contender. The record also does not acknowledge the superior individual records of Senior Captain Leon Ostrowski, Mike Sweeney, or Junior Steve Yanovich.

Bishop Hoban's grapplers had some fine exhibition showings, including a meet with Bishop Hannan when Steve Yanovich, John Yencha, and Leon Ostrowski gained pins. Against Scranton Tech the Argents dominated the light and middle weights with Yanovich, Yencha and Seniors John Boyle, Rich Britt, Mike Sweeney and Bob Alexander all gaining pins.

There were meets in the league competition where only one or two Argents faired well, but there were more meets which ended fairly close.

As Coach Ken Malia and Assistant Coach Mike Milz continue to build the wrestling program at Hoban, more and more people will take notice. The tradition of strong wrestling squads is not far away.



John Garbett gains firm control over his opponent.

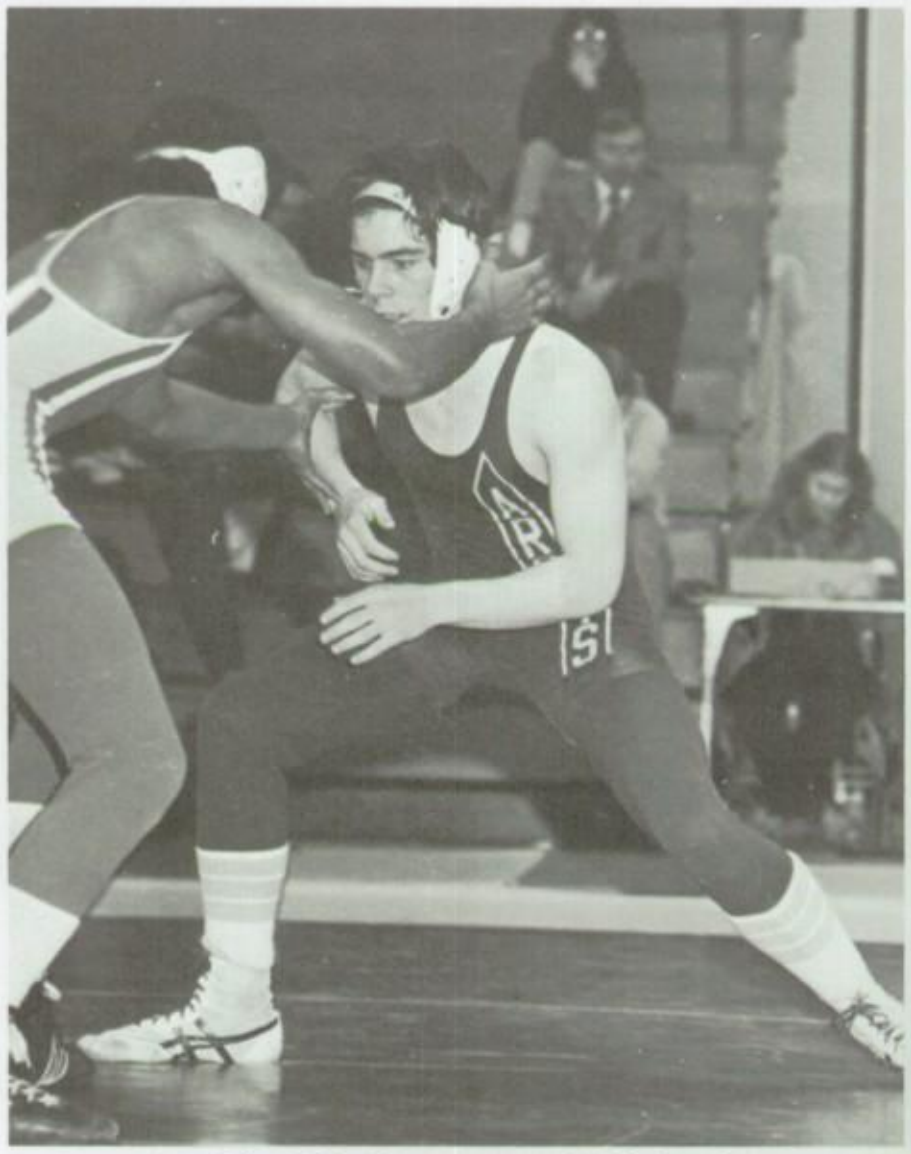
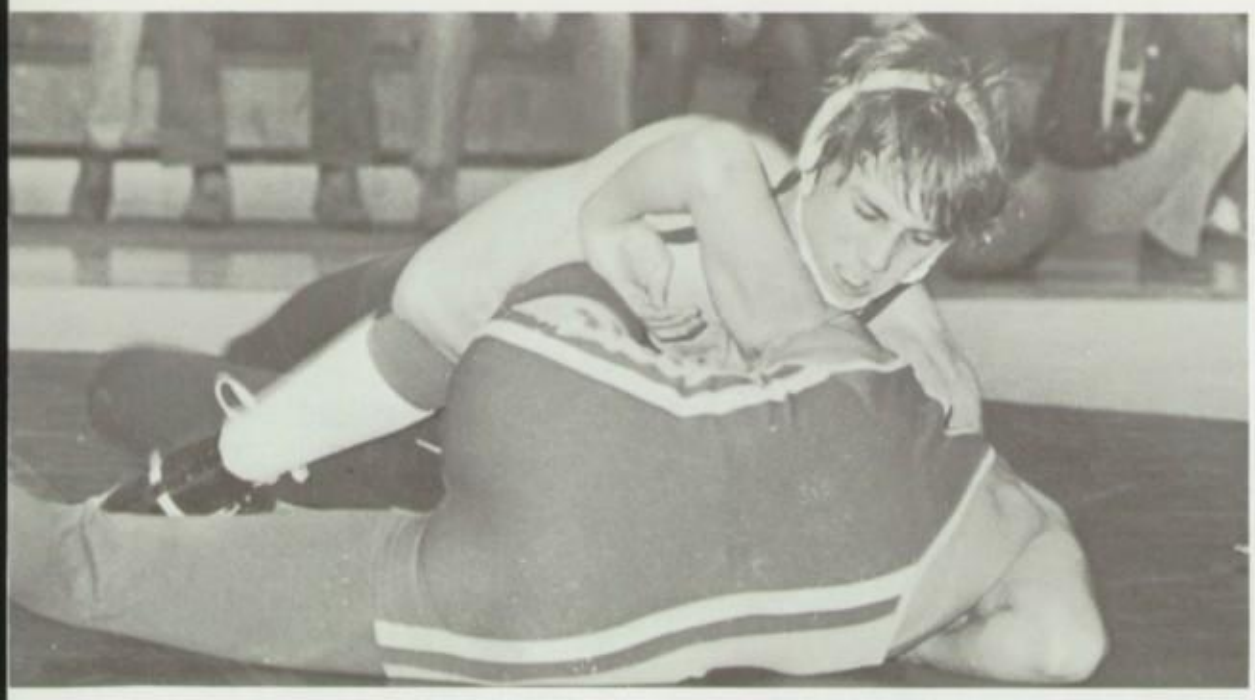
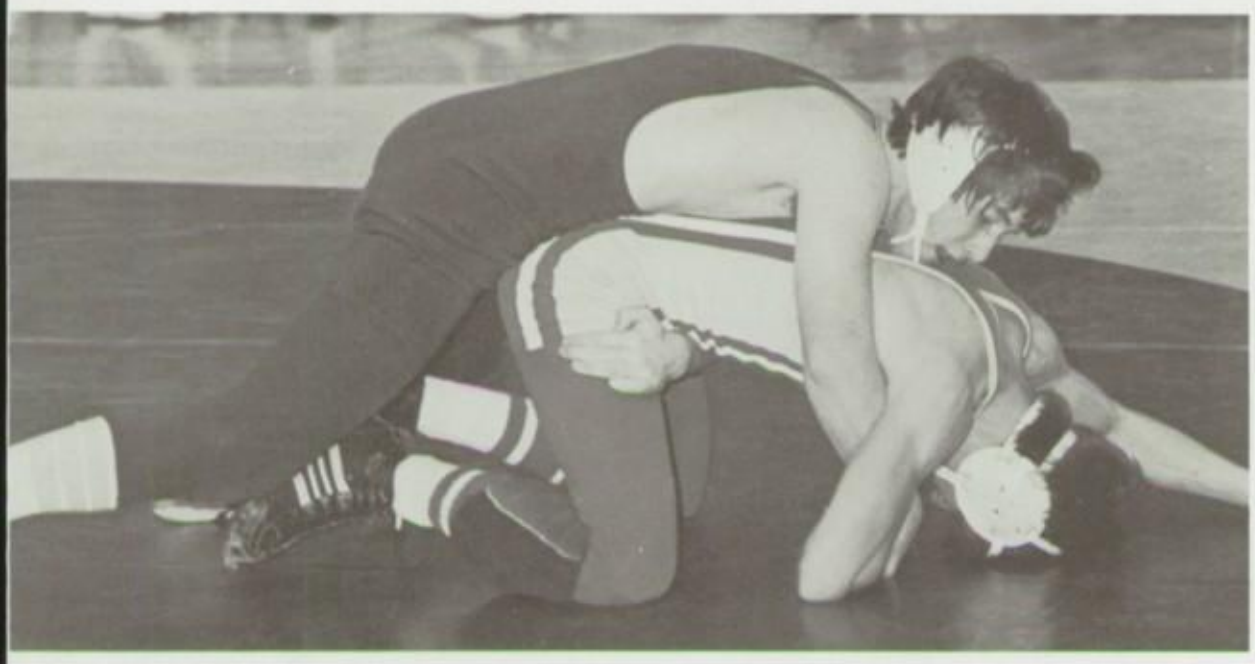
Four-year veteran Bob Alexander attempts to break the grip of a Grenadier wrestler.



A confident Mike Sweeney meets his foe head-on.



As the going gets rough senior Rich Britt gets tougher.



By keeping on top of the situation Gary O'Malia gains control.

Astounding Argents attain 91st

Swim team co-captains Jim Chopack and Vince Wallace check the line-up as Captain Gerry Ott looks on.

Faster than a speeding bullet, Clarke Bittner is off and into the water.

Phenomenal is the only word which can adequately describe a team which never ceases to amaze and a coach who never accepts anything but the best from his swimmers.

Refusing to "change" their tradition of winning, the Hoban tankmen captured their sixth straight District II title. This followed a perfect league record which brought the swimming powerhouse to a total of 91 consecutive league victories. Both accomplishments required a stronger-than-ever team effort. The rigid training schedule and the unified spirit squelched the prophets of doom who predicted an end to the Argent reign over Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Seniors Jim Chopack, Fred Blaum, Gerry Ott, and Dave Columbus led the team against a line of strong opponents including Abington Heights and Scranton Central. Underclassmen did not go unnoticed as Clarke Bittner, Jim Blaum, Jeff Heller, Vince Wallace, Chris Lucas, and Frank Hoegen excelled to bring home top placings in many meets. Senior manager Dave Medzerian also spent hours contributing to the needs of the team and writing their much-deserved publicity.

The Argent talent exploded on February 17 at Abington Heights High School Pool when they captured eight first places in the District meet. Sophomores Jim Blaum and Clarke Bittner astounded the overflow crowd as they each garnered three first places.

Veteran Coach Jim Higgins and Assistant Coach Bill Milz proudly set out for the State Championships where top-rated swimmers Dave Columbus, Clarke Bittner, Gerry Ott, Jim Blaum, Vince Wallace, Jeff Heller, Chris Lucas and Frank Hoegen competed.

When Bishop Hoban High School opened its doors in 1971, high school swimming competition in Wyoming Valley was very limited. In eight short years a number of changes have taken place. Swimming in Wyoming Valley has become a highly-respected, competitive sport. Argent Coach James Higgins certainly deserves a great deal of credit for that change.

Coach Higgins has established a winning tradition at Hoban since the very first season, a tradition which came about because of his untiring dedication to the job and the endless hours he spends with his team in practice or at his desk planning strategy for coming meets.

On Thursday, January 4, 1979, Coach Jim Higgins reached his 100th victory with a 126-38 win over Coughlin. Coach Higgins was quick to share the credit for his admirable feat. "I've received tremendous cooperation from the school administration, as well as hardworking and dedicated parents."

Credit for the Hoban dynasty in swimming must go to Coach Higgins. He has for eight years taken young swimmers, encouraged and inspired them, with the result being a line of champions year after year.

Mounting the starting block, triple district winner Clark Bittner concentrates on the event which lies ahead.

Hoban's new divers Bernie Hodakowski, Bill Dombroski and Steve Litchney take a break from mastering their diving skills.

FBLA primes students for world of business

The F.B.L.A. strives to develop competent, aggressive business leaders and strengthen the confidence of students in themselves and their work. The FBLA organization at Hoban proved to be one of the school's most active organizations. Moderator Miss Michelle Emerick gathered together a truly dedicated group of students who worked throughout the year on projects and became involved in competition at both the Fall and Spring Regional Workshops. While at these workshops the Hoban business students learned how to direct the affairs of a group and how to compete honorably in a number of events. The main purpose of the FBLA is to create more interest in American business enterprises. Its success at Hoban was evident.

Hoban thespians create Camelot

The call of "Camelot" beckoned more than one hundred students whose artistic, musical, and acting abilities were combined to offer delightful entertainment as Hoban presented its sixth annual musical under the direction of Sister Mariella, SCC.

Heading this year's cast in recreating the ever-famous world of "Camelot" were Kevin Gaffney who portrayed the valorous King Arthur and Ann Marie Coburn, the charming Guenevere. Along with the numerous supporting actors they worked to present an enchanting theatrical event.

Musical accompaniment which enhanced the atmosphere of the play was provided by the orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Richard Rusnak and the chorus directed by Miss Ann Manganiello. The contributions of Choreographer Miss Cassandra Crowley and scenic designer Mr. Wayne Pannabacker added a final touch of distinction. The stage crew under the watchful eye of Mr. James Stook produced the essential behind-the-scene effects.

As is the tradition at Bishop Hoban, this year's musical proved a huge success due to the cooperation offered by the talented Argent community which gradually turned into the community of "Camelot."

Dancers Tami Alesson and Hope Beddall take a well-deserved bow following a graceful dance routine.

Guenevere (Ann Coburn) finds Sir Lancelot (Bill Thornton) quite overbearing as King Arthur (Kevin Gaffney) looks on.

Carol Elgonitis helps to create an air of enchantment with her superb dancing.

The early days of Chivalry and knighthood brought a new look to Hoban's stage and a number of very talented young actors and actresses.

Cast members check with Director Sister Mariella and Choreographer Miss Cassandra Crawley as all minor flaws are ironed out as opening night approaches.

Holly Day atmosphere invades Hoban

The significance of receiving class rings was felt by Hoban's junior class on September 26, 1978. On that day the Class of '80 shared in a special ceremony with their parents and members of the faculty. Father Burns presided at the special Mass held in the auditorium. Father William Kearney and Father Charles Fantaskey helped to celebrate the liturgy.

Following the Eucharistic Celebration, junior class officers aided Father Burns in distributing the rings. At the conclusion of the ceremony the juniors and their parents adjourned to the cafeteria for refreshments.

June of 1978 brought the juniors one step closer to receiving their rings.

Junior Class President Chris O'Donnell thanks Sister Leonita for her efforts in making the ring ceremony such a memorable occasion.

Juniors Ray and Rita Benczkowski reflect the proud and happy feeling of the first time the ring is worn.

Sharing in the Junior Ring Ceremony were: Father Burns, Father Kearney, Junior Class Officers Mary Lynn Stofey, Judy Emmert, Molly Wildes, Chris O'Donnell, Sister Leonita, Sister Georgeanne and Mr. Majikes.

Linda Boyle shares the joy of receiving her ring with her parents.

Following tradition, Mike Banas turns Maria Baloga's ring.

Cheerleaders add special spirit to pep rallies, games

No sporting event at Hoban would be complete without the presence of Hoban's hard-working cheerleading squads. The spirit and enthusiasm runs high and the cheerleaders channel that enthusiasm of the crowds into a single expression of school spirit. The unique and creative cheers delighted the crowds and this year the girls offered enjoyable half-time routines to the more than one thousand fans who packed into the gym during basketball season. Both varsity and junior varsity squads captured prizes during competition held at the CYC. Mrs. Lore Majikes directed the squads and was aided by Miss Joan Rozanski who worked with the ninth grade cheerleaders.

The enthusiasm of varsity co-captains JoAnn Sowa and Michele Basar and the dedication of cheerleader advisor, Mrs. Lore Majikes, are two reasons why Hoban's cheerleaders are "second to none."

Officers installed; active year begins

The newly-elected homeroom representatives, officers and marshals of the Student Council took their oaths on September 22, 1978 during ceremonies held in the auditorium.

Dr. Daniel J. Curran, chairman of King's College history department, was the guest speaker. In his words to the students, Dr. Curran invited the student body to take an active role in student government. Dr. Curran also commented on the fundamentals of American liberty.

Mr. John Holmes served in his first year as Student Council advisor and worked with the students in overseeing many of Hoban's activities. For the first time, the student council assumed responsibility for the Prom.

Arc records changing times

Totally surrounded by the "changes" of '79, the Arc staff set out to capture as much of the evolution as they could. Members of the staff returned in September to find themselves changed — that is, a fresh new environment in Room 38 where the yearbook now made its home. The staff was composed of the largest number of seniors in the history of the publication. Mr. Martin J. Kane once again served as advisor to the yearbook crew. Capturing the mood of the year and the transitions that occurred proved to be an excellent theme.

The '78 Arc received acclaim from both Columbia and the Pennsylvania School Press Association. Yearbook members traveled to Harrisburg in November where the '78 Arc received a "Keystone" award at the P.S.P.A. Dinner. The awards were happily received and recognized the great effort put forth by the yearbook staff in compiling a printed memory for all to enjoy.

As the first deadline nears, senior staff members Donna Greytock, Sue Werhun, Sue Chokola, Sue Fedor and Barbara Williams revise copy, and check layout ideas.

Ann Bekampis, Linda Yenkowski and Kathleen Delaney finish rough drafts and cropping pictures as Sue Lock and Kathy Konopelski contribute their opinions.

ANTICIPATION

Joe, To one of the sweetest and cutest guy I know. With a great personality to match! Remember all the crazy times we had in Religion with Kat and Rita's jokes and in Blair's History class I wish you all the luck & success in the world. See you in the Summer. Take Care. Love Kathie ("80")

Joe.
To one of the nicest & cutest guys I know.
Never forget our religion class, when you'd keep kicking my chair & driving me crazy. Remember our hug class, I don't know what I would of done if you didn't always give me your homework!
Good luck next year in football, basketball & track.
Keep in touch over the summer & be happy.

Love,
Patti

Changes accepted

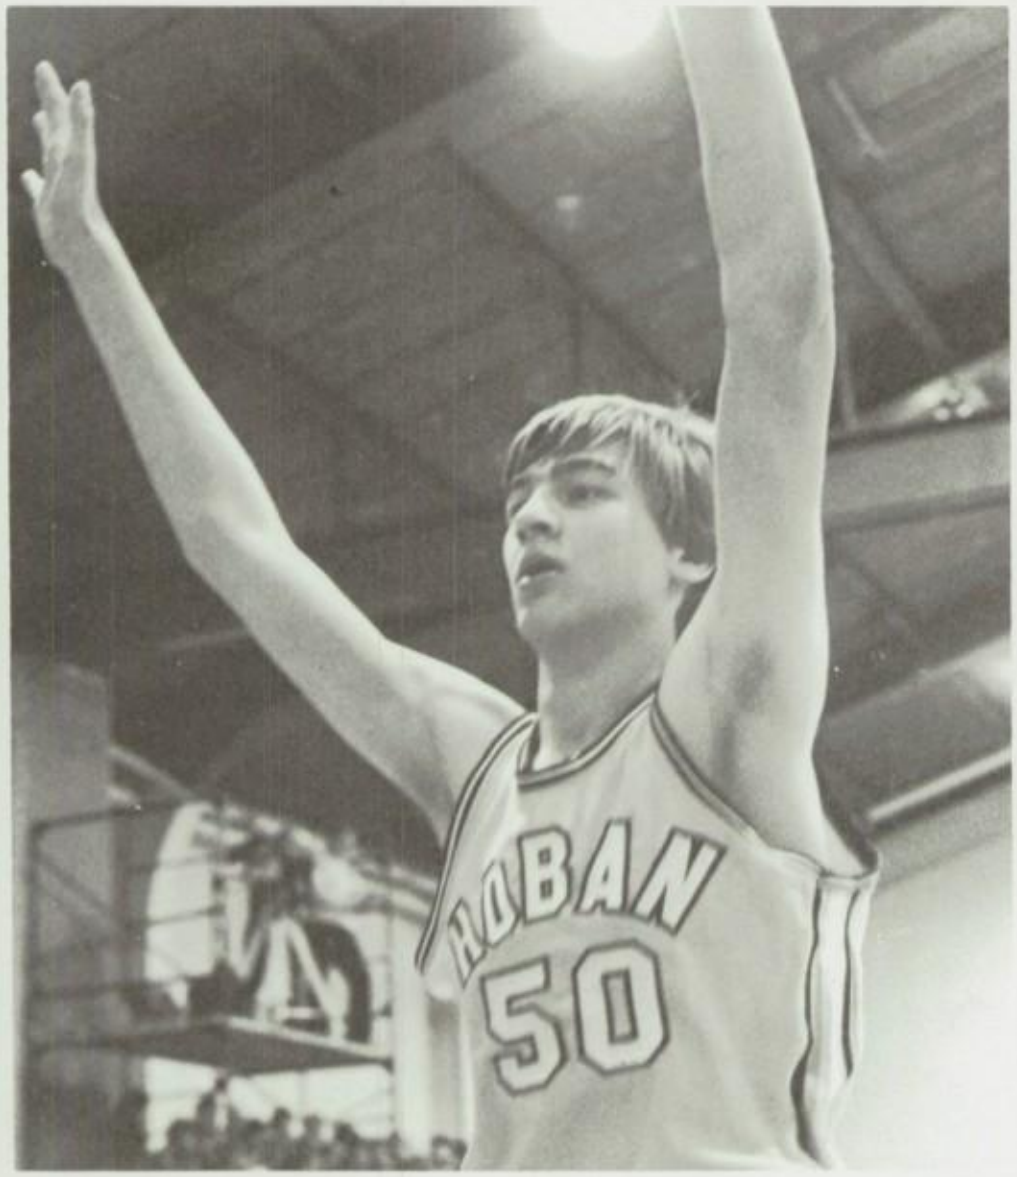
Joe Slavoski proves that "flower children" are not a thing of the past.

Some things may never change.

The faces may change but the spirit and enthusiasm remain the same.

Becoming involved in activities makes life a little more interesting for Dan Monick.

as way of life



Tom Kosin's individual strength helped to create a strong Argent team.

Reaching the end of another year of new experiences and changes, one is gradually able to acknowledge that what once seemed to be "new" is now "familiar" and what seemed a "change" has now become acceptable as a part of normal everyday activity.

This year, we ourselves have changed; we came to life with a new spirit, never quite matched by those from the past. We, as the body of the Hoban community were proud to be the nucleus of this new generation, initiating a number of traditions through our personal insight and creativity.

As Arc '79 comes to its finale, we look to the past as only the beginning. For we are the yesterday that tomorrow will reflect on. Though unique, together we unite, combining our efforts to produce a series of changes necessary for continuing growth.

In Memoriam

DENISE FASULKA

November 6, 1962
December 5, 1978

We do not lose heart, because our inner being is renewed each day even though our body is being destroyed at the same time. The present burden of our trial is light enough, and earns for us eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison. We do not fix our gaze on what is seen. What is seen is transitory; what is unseen lasts forever.

Eye has not seen, ear has not heard, nor has it so much as dawned on man what God has prepared for those who love Him.

— The letter of Paul to the Corinthians.
